

Reports to: Chief Sustainable Funding Officer, Pinnguaq Foundation

Location: Lindsay, ON

Overview:

The Pinnguaq Foundation Board prioritizes working with rural, remote, Indigenous, and other communities underrepresented in STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Math). Driven by deeply held values of equity and inclusion for STEAM learning, our board is committed to best practices of governance, integrity, and accountability.

Join our team, and be part of the innovative future of STEAM learning and digital skills training. Working alongside rural, remote, Indigenous and other communities, the Pinnguaq Foundation supports the advancement of STEAM education in collaboration with key delivery partners like Ampere who support STEAM learning through innovative technology, art, and play.

We are seeking four candidates for a two-year term beginning in 2025 who can bring their expertise in governance and fundraising to help guide and shape the Foundation across rural and remote communities in Canada:

- Board Chair
